Funeral Director / Funeral Director Intern

Location: Richland, WA — Einan's at Sunset Funeral Home

Employer: Einan's Group of Funeral Homes

About Us

Einan's at Sunset is the flagship (our "mother-ship") location of the Einan's Group of Funeral Homes, a progressive network serving the Tri-Cities region of Washington. We're redefining what funeral service can look and feel like — modern, warm, deeply personal, and community-minded.

Our culture thrives on passion, purpose, and perseverance. We believe in collaboration, continuous growth, and empowering our team members to deliver exceptional care to every family we serve.

If you're ready to be part of a respected, forward-thinking organization where your work matters, this is your opportunity.

About the Role

We're seeking a licensed Funeral Director or Funeral Director Intern who wants to grow in a high-performing, supportive environment. This position is based at our Richland, WA campus — our central hub known for excellence in service, innovation, and care.

As part of our dedicated team, you'll provide guidance and comfort to families during their most meaningful moments while upholding the professional standards that make Einan's one of the most trusted names in the region.

What You'll Do

- Deliver compassionate, seamless service to every family from initial interaction through final disposition
- Assist and/or lead funeral and memorial services, visitations, and celebrations of life
- Support families in making meaningful arrangements, from planning to coordination and follow-up
- Maintain regulatory compliance, accurate documentation, and meticulous attention to detail
- Collaborate with colleagues across departments and other branches as needed to ensure every family receives a unified, exceptional experience
- Participate in community engagement efforts and events such as our annual Tree of Remembrance and other memorial programs

Who You Are

You are grounded, caring, and driven by purpose. You bring professionalism, empathy, and pride to your craft. You work well under pressure and find meaning in helping others through life's hardest days.

Qualifications

- Licensed Funeral Director (WA) or eligible for intern licensure
- Strong interpersonal, written, and verbal communication skills
- Detail-oriented and comfortable managing multiple cases simultaneously
- Ability to lift up to 100 lbs as needed
- Clean driving record and valid driver's license
- Bilingual (English/Spanish) preferred but not required
- Flexible schedule — includes some evenings, weekends, and on-call rotation

Why You'll Love Working Here

- A progressive, forward-thinking funeral home network with modern facilities and a supportive culture
- Meaningful work that impacts families and strengthens our community
- Competitive pay and benefits, including CE/licensure support
- Leadership that values collaboration, compassion, and integrity
- While advancement opportunities may not always be available, when they arise, we love to promote from within and help our team grow

About the Tri-Cities

Richland, WA is part of the beautiful Tri-Cities region — where sunny skies, rivers, and a strong sense of community make life outside of work as fulfilling as your career.
